F Bb F
Oh, cruel is the snow that sweeps Glencoe,
F C
and covers the grave o' Donald.
F Bb F
And cruel was the foe that raped Glencoe,
Bb C F
and murdered the house o' MacDonald.

F C F
They came in the blizzard, we offered them heat,
C F C
a roof o'er their heads, dry shoes for their feet.
F C F Dm
We wined them and dined them, they ate o' our meat,
Bb C F
and they slept in the house o' MacDonald.

Refrein:

F C F
They came from Fort William with murder in mind,
C F C
the Campbell had orders King William had signed:
F C F Dm
Put all to the sword, these words underlined,
Bb C F
And leave none alive called MacDonald.

Refrein:

F C F
They came in the night when the men were asleep,
C F C
this band of Argyles, through snow soft and deep.
F C F Dm
Like murdering foxes, among helpless sheep,
Bb C F
they slaughtered the house o' MacDonald.

Refrein:

F C F
Some died in their beds at the hands o' the foe,
C F C
some fled in the night, were lost in the snow.
F C F Dm
Some lived to accuse him, what struck the first blow,
Bb C F
but gone was the house of MacDonald.
