 Near Banbridge Town in the County Down, one morning last July,
 Dm F C Dm Bb Dm
 Down a boreen green came a sweet cailín, and she smiled as she passed me by.
 F C Dm Bb Am
 She looked so sweet from her two bare feet, to the sheen of her nut brown hair.
 Bb F C Dm Bb Dm
 Such a winsome elf, sure I shook myself, for to see I was really there.

Refrein:

F C
From Bantry Bay up to Derry's Quay,
Dm Bb Am
From Galway to Dublin Town,
Bb F C
No maid I've seen like the fair cailín
Dm Bb Dm
That I met in the County Down.

Dm F C Dm Bb Am
 As she onward sped, sure I scratched my head, and I looked with the feelin' rare,
 Dm F C Dm Bb Dm
 And I said, said I, to a passer-by, "Whose the maid with the nut brown hair?"
 F C Dm Bb Am
 He smiled at me and he said, said he, "That's the gem o-of Ireland's crown.
 Bb F C Dm Bb Dm
 It's Rosie McCann from the banks of the Bann. She's the star of the County Down".

Refrein:

Dm F C Dm Bb Am
 She had soft brown eyes with a look so shy and a smile like a rose in June.
 Dm F C Dm Bb Dm
 And she sang so sweet what a lovely treat, as she lilted an Irish tune.
 F C Dm Bb Am
 At the patterns dance I was in the trance, As she whirled with the lads of the town.
 Bb F C Dm Bb Dm
 And it broke my heart just to be apart From the star of the County Down.

Refrein:

Dm F C Dm Bb Am
 At the Harvest Fair she'll be surely there, So I'll dress in my Sunday clothes,
 Dm F C Dm Bb Dm
 With my shoes shone bright and my hat cocked right, For a smile from my nut brown rose.
 F C Dm Bb Am
 No pipe I'll smoke, no horse I'll yoke, 'Till my plough turns to rust coloured brown.
 Bb F C Dm Bb Dm
 'Till a smiling bride, by my own fireside, Sits the star of the County Down.
