The little boats are gone from the breast of Anna Liffy
 The ferryman is stranded on the quay
 Sure the Dublin docks is dying and a way of life is gone
 And Molly it was part of you and me

Refrein:

Where the Strawberry beds sweep down to the Liffy
 You kissed away the worry from my brow
 I love you well today and I'll love you more tomorrow
 If you ever love me Molly love me now

T'was the only job I knew it was hard but never lonely
 The Liffy ferry made a man of me
 And it's gone without a whisper and forgotten even now
 And sure it's over Molly over can't you see

Refrein:

Well now I'll tend the yard and I'll spend me days in talking
 I'll hear them whisper Charlie's on the dole
 But Molly we're still living and darling we're still young
 And that river never owned me heart and soul

Refrein: instrumentaal
