F Bb F
It's a working man I am, and I've been down under ground.

F C
And I swear to God if I ever see the sun

F Bb F
or for any length of time, I can hold it in my mind:

F C F
I never again will go down under ground.

F Bb F
At the age of sixteen years, with my father close to tears

F C
As he vowed never again to send his sons

F Bb F
To the dark recess of the mines, where you age before your time

F C F
and the coal dust lies heavy on your lungs.

Refrein:

F Bb F
At the age of sixty-five, I pray to God I'm still alive

F C
And the wheels above the mine no longer whine

F Bb F
And they finally close the hole, where for years we clawed for coal

F C F
and never again will go down under ground.

Refrein: 2x
