In eighteen-o-three we sailed out to sea Out from the sweet town of Derry
Am C G D Am
For Australia bound, if we didn't all drown, The marks of our fetters we carried
D C D Em
In the rusty iron chains we cried for our wanes, Our good women we left in sorrow
Am C G D Am
As the main sails unfurled, our curses we hurled, On the English and thoughts of tomorrow

Am C G D Am
At the mouth of the Foyle, bid farewell to the soil, As down below decks we were lying,
Am C G D Am
O'Doherty screamed, woken out of a dream, By a vision of bold Robert dying
D C D Em
The sun burnt cruel as we dished out the gruel, Dan O'Conner was down with a fever
Am C G D Am
Sixty rebels today, bound for Botany Bay, How many will reach their receiver

Refrein:

C G Am G Am
Oh oh oh oh oh I wish I was back home in Derry
C G Am G Am
Oh oh oh oh oh I wish I was back home in Derry

Am C G D Am
I cursed them to hell as our bow fought the swell, Our ship danced like a moth in the firelight
Am C G D Am
Wild horses rode high as the devil passed by, Taking souls to Hades by twilight
Dm C D Em
Five weeks out to sea, we were now forty-three, We buried our comrades each morning
Am C G D Am
In our own slime we were lost in the time, Endless night without dawning

Refrein:

Am C G D Am
Van Diemen's Land is a hell for a man To end out his whole life in slavery
Am C G D Am
Where the climate is raw and a gun makes the law Neither wind nor rain care for bravery
D C D Em
Twenty years have gone by, I have ended my bond My comrades' ghosts walk behind me
Am C G D Am
A rebel I came, I'm still the same On a cold winds of night you will find me

Refrein: 1,5 x
