F Dm Gm C7
In Dublin's fair city, where the girls are so pretty
F Dm Gm C
I first set my eyes on sweet Molly Mallone
F Dm
As she wheeled a wheel-barrow,
Gm C7
through streets broad and narrow
F Dm Gm C F
crying; " Cockles and Mussels a-live, a-live oh.

refrein: F Dm Gm C7
Alive alive o-oh Alive alive o-oh
F Dm Gm C F
crying; " Cockles and Mussels a-live, a-live oh.

F Dm Gm C7
She was a fishmonger, but sure `t was no wonder
F Dm Gm C
For so were her father and mother before
F Dm
And they each wheeled their barrow,
Gm C7
through streets broad and narrow
F Dm Gm C F
Crying; cockles and mussels a-live, a-live oh

Refrein: instrumentaal

F Dm Gm C7
She died of a fever, no one could save her
F Dm Gm C
And that was the end of sweet Molly Malone
F Dm
Now her ghost wheels her barrow,
Gm C7
through streets broad and narrow
F Dm Gm C F
Crying; cockles and mussels a-live, a-live oh

Refrein: zacht

Refrein: 2x aan het einde vertragen
