F C F
Oh poor old Dicey Reilly she has taken to the sup
C F
Oh poor old Dicey Reilly she will never give it up
F C
And time for each morning to the pub, and then she's in for another little drop
F C7 F
For the heart of the rowl is Dicey Reilly

F C F
Oh she walks along Fitzgibbon street with an independent air
C F
And then it's down be Summerhill and as the people stare
F C
She says it's nearly half past one, and it's time I had another little one
F C7 F
Ah the heart of the rowl is Dicey Reilly

Refrein

F C F
Long years ago when men were men and fancied May Oblong
C F
Or lovely Beckie Cooper or Maggie's Mary Wong
F C
One woman put them all to shame, just one was worthy of the name
F C7 F
And the name of the dame was Dicey Reilly

Refrein

F C F
Oh but time went catching up on her like many pretty girls
C F
And it's after you along the street before you're out the door
F C
The looks all fade and the balance weighed, but out of all that great brigade
F C7 F
Still the heart of the rowl is Dicey Reilly

Refrein 3x steeds sneller
