C Am
As I was going over the Killmagenny Mountains
F C G
I met with captain Farrell and his money he was counting.
C Am
I first produced my pistol, and than I drew my sabre
F C
Saying stand and deliver, for I am a bold deceiver,

Refrein:

G

C F
whack for the daddy 'ol, whack for the daddy 'ol
C G C
there's whiskey in the jar

C Am
I counted out his money, and it made a pretty penny.
F C G
I put it in my pocket and I gave it to my Jenny.
C Am
She sighed and she swore, that she never would betray me,
F C
but the devil take the women, for they never can be easy
C Am
I went into my chamber, all for to take a slumber,
F C G
I dreamt of gold and jewels and for sure it was no wonder.
C Am
But Jenny drew my charges and she filled them up with water,
F C
Then she went for captain Farrel to be ready for the slaughter.

C Am
And 't was early in the morning, before I rose for travel,
F C G
Up comes an band of footmen and likewise captain Farrel.
C Am
I then produced my pistol, for she stole away my sabre,
F C
But I couldn't shoot the water so a prisoner I was taken.

Refrein

C Am
If anyone can aid me, it's my brother in the army,
F C G
If I could learn his station down in Cork or in Killarney.
C Am
And if he'll come and join me, we'll go roving in Kilkenny,
F C
I'll engage he'll treat me fairer than my darling sporting Jenny
